Bloomfield C. C. C. Boys Move To Winter Camp

Having completed its work at North Bloomfield, C. C. C. Company 914 evacuated the camp Wednesday, the 29th Inst., to move into the newly constructed winter quarters at Grass Valley, from where the men are to engage in building a part of the Ponderosa Fire Break, one of the most important Forestry projects in California.

The new camp is located on the Harris property, west of Grass Valley, on the Tahoe-Ukiah highway. These quarters are constructed especially for winter occupation, being double floored and walled and equipped with electric lights and stoves. The buildings are placed atop a slight knoll, among a grove of pines, so that the drainage is excellent and a good windbreak is provided.

Among the changes in the Executive personnel accompanying the move was the appointment of Captain Allen Deason Jr., of the Military Intelligence Reserve, to relieve Captain Philip F. Biehl, 6th C. A., who has been commanding officer of the company for the past seven months. The appointment of Captain Deason was effective of November 23rd. The posts of camp adjutant and camp welfare officer are to be held by Lieutenant E. H. Mahan, and Lieutenant Waldo B. Telfer, respectively.

Lieutenant B. W. Hummelt is physician and sanitation officer.

CAMP SUPERVISION

State Fire Warden Leon G. Johnson remains as camp supervisor in charge of all forestry operations, as does the personnel of his department, which includes Melvin Bean, Archie Lansburg, Clarence Martz, J. B. Murphy, Calvin Brunner, Russell B. Champie, Elbert Peard and Roy Davis.

While encamped at the Grass Valley location, Company 914 (now 208) will aid in building a portion of the Ponderosa Way Fire Break, and construct sixteen miles of telephone lines between Nevada City and Bloomfield.

That part of the Ponderosa Way project on which 914 is to work lies between Taylor Crossing on Bear River and a point on Deer Creek, about three miles north-west of Grass Valley, a distance of twenty miles.

FIRE BREAK 800 MILES LONG

The break is to be on the line of demarcation between the yellow pine stand and the brush and oak fire hazard areas, and is to be a minimum of fifty feet wide on sharp ridges and through low cover. The average width on rolling ridges and gentle slopes is to be one hundred feet, while through timber and high brush on side slopes of ten percent grade, the width is to be ten feet above and two hundred feet below the truck trail.

All sprouting brush is to be thoroughly grubbed or removed, timbered sections to be "parked," that is, undergrowth and all inflammable material to be removed and trees limbed to a height of ten to twelve feet above the ground. Sufficient thinning is to be done to manimize fire crowning and snags are to be felled for a minimum of three hundred feet on each side of the break.

In addition to this thirty seven miles of roadside clearing and twenty three miles of truck trail maintenance is to be done.

Impossible of completion because of lack of funds, the Ponderosa project is now assured of at least partal achievement. The venture is immense in proportion; as planned at present it will extend along the southern slope of the Sierra mountain range, from a point near Redding, Shasta rounty, to the Sequoia National Fodest, in Tulare county, a distance of 800 miles or more.

BLOOMFIELD CAMP TOPS LIST

Reports for the first six month period compiled by camp supervisor Johnson show that Company 914, while at the Bloomfield site, stood at the top of the list of the seven camps in the Tahoe Forest, as regards results accomplished.

There were no major fires in the Bloomfield Ranger district during the foregoing period and very few minor blazes. According to Supervisor Bigelow, the number of fires started were as usual, but the damage was confined to a very small area as compared with former years. From May 15 to November 17, Company 914 had engaged in 636 mandays firefighting. Most of this time was taken in fighting fires in the National forests at Pike City, French Corral, Newton and Deer Creek.

SPRINGS DEVELOPED

Farmers and ranchers have been benefited materially by C. C. C. technical operations, chief of which was the development of springs and other water sources. Nineteen springs were improved with fences, sheep and stock troughs, dams and tanks. Many, which had been rendered useless by the stamping of cattle and wildlife, were cleaned out and the flow restored. Besides this a large area of grazing land was cleared of poison laurel and oak, and several miles of trails for the driving of cattle and sheep constructed.

Waterbreaks to protect the public highways above Bloomfield to Graniteville and thereabouts were built and a good deal of highway was gravelled, notably above Bloomfield.

Although much of the work was hazardous, few accidents to the boys were recorded, and due to strict sanitation rules in the camp there was little sickness, according to the company officials.

ONLY A MINNOW, BUT O BOY! DID HE FIGHT?

A Nevada City fisherman, who for modesty or other reasons desires the Nugget not to mention his name, comes forth with this story the day after Thanksgiving:

He had tried all kinds of bait on the Deer Creek trout with no success, until finally he rounded up a two inch minnow. He used the minnow until the little fish was nearly worn out and very tired of being bait. Fortunately this fisherman discovered an old bottle floating down stream. In the bottom of the bottle was a little amber fluid. He emersed his fainting minnow in this and cast it back into the stream, determined to try his luck again.

In less than 30 seconds he had a strike. A big fish was fighting on the other end of his line. For an hour and a half the battle waged and finally he landed the monster, a 40-pound pike. To his amazement he discovered that the pike was not hooked at all, but that the minnow had the leviathan by the throat.

DAVID N. MORGAN IS HONORED IN HOME CITY

David N. Morgan, son and grandson of two eminent Nevada City masons, now Commander of Berkeley Knights Templar, was honored by local Masonry Saturday evening at a banquet, beautifully prepared and served by Mrs. Neaves of the Shamrock Cafe at the lodge rooms, following the meeting at the Nevada City Masonic Lodge.

Motoring up from Berkeley with Commander Morgan was a large delegation of Knights Templar accompanied by their ladies who were entertained by the ladies of the Nevada City Knights Templar.

Garfield Robson, Commander of the Nevada City Knights Templar, and officers of the commandery, were hosts.

David N. Morgan, is a grand son of John T. Morgan, prominent not only in Nevada City Masonic circles, but also in the city's business and financial progress. He is the son of David E. Morgan, who also held a high place in masonry and in the business life of this city.

After the dinner the visiting ladies were taken to Brand's Studio where a short program and card games were enjoyed. Prizes were awarded for highest scores.

Miss Helen Calanan, teacher in the San Francisco schools, spent Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Calanan.

MRS. SOMMERS, CAMPTONVILLE, IS SUMMONED

CAMPTONVILLE, Dec. 2.—The community lost another of its pioneer citizens Thursday evening in the passing of Mrs. Margaret Sommers, veteran resident of the Mill Creek section. She had been ill for several months, general breaking down in her declining years, and although her passing was not a surprise, it was a great shock of sorrow to her many relatives and friends.

Deceased was born in Wetblar, Germany, on August 12th, 1861, and before leaving the old country was married to Louis Marquardt, and forty-nine years ago came to this community where she has resided since that time. To this union six children were born, the father passing away, and in 1893 she was married to Joseph Sommers to which union five more children were born.

As a mother and a home builder much praise is to be said of Mrs. Sommers. With hard work and love for her home, she brought up this large family in a most creditable manner. As a friend and neighbor, she was of amiable disposition and lovable character, winning the sincere friendship of all who knew her.

She is survived by a husband, J. Sommers, and the following sons and daughters, Mrs. Kate Humphrey, of Camptonville; Mrs. Mary Kennady, of Oroville; Mrs. Johanna Turner of Camptonvlile; Mrs. Elizabeth Halkyard, San Francisco; Frank Sommers, Santa Cruez; Mrs. Margaret Kennady, Berkeley; Mrs. Laverne Roberts, San Francisco; Albert C. Sommers, Nevada City; Mrs. Gertrude T. Samms, and Louise Marquardt, Camptonville.

A large number of grandchildren, nephews and nieces, also survive.

Funeral services were held from the auditorium of the local Masonic hall Saturday afternoon, services conducted by Rev. H. H. Buckner, of Nevada City, and interment made in the local cemetery, funeral arrangements in charge of Holmes Funeral Home of Nevada City.

FIREMEN OPEN DRIVE TOMORROW

The Nevada City Fire department tomorrow will begin its annual drive this year for the benefit of Armory hall, which the department is purchasing. Tickets to the great annual ball, December 30, will be sold, merchandise for prizes and each donations will also be solicited.

The committee in charge of the drive consists of Chief Louis Kopp, R. L. P. Bigglow, Howard Penrose, and E. J. N. Ott

COMPLAINING WITNESS REFUSES TO TESTIFY

Owing to the refusal of O. E. Hanson, manager of a local chain store to testify in the prosecution of a bad check charge, the case was dismissed by Judge W. L. Mobley Saturday. Hanson refused to testify after he had sworn to a complaint and caused an arrest. Both Deputy District Attorney Tharp and Judge Mobley were loath to dismiss the charge, but had no other alternative under the circumstances.

Governor, 68, Hopes to Fly

Besides piloting the ship of state, 68-year-old. Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania plans to do some plane piloting in the near future. He and his wife have taken physical examinations preparatory to making applications for student pilot licenses. Both Mrs. Pinchot and the governor, who is shown above wearing an aviator's helmet, have done considerable flying this year.

STORMBRINGS 2.96 IN. OF RAIN

The first rain in over a month brought an abundant precipitation, mixed with a little snow in large wet flakes, amounting to 2.96 inches, according to Mrs. Helen Berger, who keeps tally on Jupiter Pluvius.

The first snow of the season, mixed with rain though it was proved very welcome, particularly to the Ski Club which looks forward to a great season of winter sports.

Twelve inches of snow fell at Alleghany Sunday, while between sixteen niches of snow fell.

A number of cars have passed through Nevada City today with snow-laden tops.

GOOD GRADE ORE IN WEST MINES HUSSEY

The West Mines Corporation are now running the Queen Lil Mill, north of town, two shifts daily crushing the ore from the Hussey mine east of town.

Development work has carried the drift 225 feet from the shaft. There has been a continued ore body with the exception of about 20 feet. The present face is the best showing as yet in the development. The vein is narrow but the ore is of splendid grade.

DRUNKEN DRIVER GOES TO JAIL

Elmer Ford, hit and runner, arrested after a wild chase by traffic officers and found hiding with his car in Empire street, Grass Valley, was sentenced yesterday by Judge Raglan Tuttle to four months in the county jail. He had been convicted of driving while drunk. Ford some weeks since side-swiped the car of Will W. Davis of Willow Valley. The probation officer and the probation committee refused to recommend probation for Ford.

PENNSYLVANIA FIRE COMPANY TO FEAST

Pennsylvania Fire Company No. 2 on Wednesday evening will hold its annual turkey dinner at the fire house. This big event is financed by the dues paid through the year by the members, and is expected to cast in the shadow all former culinary and gustatory events of the past.

Guests over the Thanksgiving holidays at the S. Hieronimous home were Miss Adele Hieronimous, teacher in the Loomis schools, and Carl Hieronimous, student in the University of San Francisco.

Mrs. W. Helme of Nevada City is very low with pneumonia. Dr. W. W. Reed is attending her.

State Mineralogist Visits Mines Here

Walter W. Bradley, State Mineralogist with headquarters in the Ferry Building in San Francisco, paid a visit over the week end to the mines in the district. Among the mines visited were the Idaho-Maryland and the Brunswick where the new headframes have been completed on the old and new shafts. With this exception Mr. Bradley tried to confine his visit to the newer developments.

He arrived in Grass Valley Friday night accompanied by Dan Blood, Director of Natural Resources, under whose jurisdiction the Department of Mines functions. This was Mr. Blood's first visit to this section and he expressed himself as delighted with the conditions he found here. Mr. Blood returned to his home in Sacramento but Mr. Bradley remained over the week end returning to his home in San Francisco today. He attended the meeting of the Commandery here Saturday night. He is a member of the Berkeley Commandery which put on the work.

Among the newer developments visited were the Central and Banner of the Lava Cap where he found the mill nearing completion. In the near future the mill will crush the rock from the two mines. He also visited the Premier, the Alcalde, the Spring Hill and the McDonald ranch where the tailings of the Empire mine are being reworked. The tailings are being sluiced into a dump and from there pumped into a concentrating plant. One shipment of concentrates was made last week to the smelter at Selby and another shipment is ready to go in a few days.

On Monday morning Mr. Bradley had a conference with Congressman Englebright realative to mining claims within the National Forest. This matter is coming before the next session of Congress. Mr. Bradley represents the subcommittee of the State Chamber of Commerce who are suggesting a compromise with the Forest Service. Congressman Englebright stated emphatically that he would not compromise, that he was in Congress to aid the miner and not to hamper him in anyway. The controversy between the Forest Service and mining interests has been going on since 1905.

State Mineralogist Bradley was one of the first to recognize the unfairness of the gold regulations with regards to the small operator of which there are between 1400 and 1500 in the state. He immediately got in touch with the head of the S. F. Mint protesting in behalf of the small operators and buyers and later gave valuable assistance in drawing up the changed regulations.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY OF AUTO, LEADS TO COMEDY OF ERRORS

When a convivial gentleman becomes forgetful of his wife and his domestic appointments, what does the neglected wife do? She ust naturally climbs into the family car and rambles home leaving him to his conviviality.

Then what happens? The husband, coming to, after a round with genial friends strolls out into the street, looking for the patient wife, and not finding her, begins to look for his car. Finally he discovers what he thinks is his car, and wondering why it has changed parking places since he saw it last, climbs in, and wondering also about poor, friend wife, who must have walked home and thoughtfully left the car for him, drives home. There he finds another car, the twin pea of his own, in the home garage.

Thus it happened that Myers Mobley this morning reported that his car had been stolen last night from in front of the Elk's Club and had Sheriff George Carter and all his aids out hunting for the well known Buick. The traffic officers, the constable and the entire police force of the city, headed by Garfield Robson, were also combing the country for the strayed auto. Then the phone rang and the convivial gentleman confessed over the phone to Mobley, that under unusual conditions, he had mistaken Mobley's Buick, 1927 model for his own Buick, 1927 model.

NEW HOUSES WILL BE BUILT NEAR GOLF CLUB

Jack Twitchell, contractor of Grass Valley on Friday purchased a lot in front of the Nevada County Golf Club house and has taken an option on seven more from a Grass Valley bank. He is to start building a modern house to cost over $2,500. The district is restricted to $2,500 homes in order to build up that section into a fine residential district.

In these new houses Mr. Twitchell builds, he will construct his Yankee kitchen unit, which he has had copyrighted, making the kitchen a delight to the housewife for convenience.

Mrs. Alice Davies and sister, Mrs. Nell Ferrier, spent Thanksgiving with their brother in Forest.

SKI CLUB WILL MEET TONIGHT

The Nevada City-Grass Valley Ski club will meet this evening in the Nevada City chamber of commerce rooms at 8 o'clock to discuss the renovation of the pumping plant, supplying the club house and premises with water, and other important matters that must be attended to before the season for winter sports opens.

Miles D. Coughlin, president, is especially anxious that all members attend. Among the question to be decided, is that of installing a power plant to pull the toboggans up the hill after the long swift slide down the chute. Last year such a plant was installed but owing to the heavy snow which broke down the roof of the building in which the engine was housed it was never used.

A large stump has recently been blasted out of the long slope to be used by novice ski jumpers and this course is now said to be practically complete.

MINER SETS OFF OLD CHARGE, INJURED

John Highmongi, who went to prospect in an old abandoned mine tunnel near Grass Valley, Sunday struck an old charge of powder left by previous operators, that exploded, injuring his face and head with light pebbles and earth, shattered his thumb and fore-finger and imbedded many bits of rock in his body.

He was taken to the county hospital Sunday evening where Dr. A. H. Tickell treated him. Dr. Tickell this morning said that he thought Highmongi would recover.

SWEEPING CUTS IN RAIL FARES NOW IN EFFECT

Giving promise of a great increase in travel to the Pacific Coast, a general reduction of railroad fares, together with removal of the Pullman surcharge, became effective December 1, in territory west of the Mississippi river.

By elimination of the surcharge, Pullman fares are reduced one-third on western lines, it was stated, and the cost of rail transportation is cut more than 25 per cent in some instances.

Announcement was also made by Southern Pacific of special Christmas excursions to and from eastern points, leaving December 9, and again from December 14 to January 1, with return limit of Panuary 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mugford and son spent Thanksgiving in Oroville with her parents.

A CHRISTMAS PRESENT FOR YOU

This is the time of the year when most of us are thinking intently—and perhaps frantically—about the problem of Christmas gifts. And here's a good suggestion: Give a present to yourself; not for entirely selfish reasons, but in order to help those to whom Christmas this year might be just one more day.

The kind of a gift that will accomplish this purpose is one that provides employment and entails the purchase of basis commodities. And nothing fills the bill more completely than property construction and betterment. Give yourself a new furnace or a roof or an electric kitchen or a garage or some new furniture. Better yet, if it's possible, give yourself a new home—you'll be getting it for next to nothing in comparison to what the best opinion forecasts it will cost in the near future and you'll be spreading Christmas cheer among numerous families.

Your local contractor or dealer in buliding materials is competent to advise you. He can show you where you can make real savings—how you can make your dollars do Spartan duty. Talk it over with him. Think how much a wave of construction, even if on an individually small scale, would mean to the social and economic welfare of your community. And give yourself that Christmas present. You'll never regret it.

WEEKLY COMMENT

By CHRISTIAN ANDERSEN

Governor Rolph allowed himself to be put on the spot again when he took an anti-civilization position on the lynching of Holmes and Thurman. Several such will make it hard for him to be elected Governor next time if he chooses to run.

Sierra county organized a Chamber of Commerce last week, the purpose of which is, of course, to further the interest of the county. This is, therefore, a laudable gesture. And speaking of Chambers of Commerce it has been my privilege to work with several civic organizations including two chambers. My observation has taught me that if the men who were the officers were men of vision, the progress of the community was at once advanced by the work of the Chamber.

It was most weird last night to listen to a broadcast from Admiral Byrd's flagship which was said to be approximately nine thousand miles south of New York, on its way to the south hub of the world. Even though the present explorer travels de luxe there must of necessity be endured a lot of hardships and privations which has no relation even to the comforts of a second rate club. It takes a lot more knowledge of navigation to navigate a ship to the south polar regions than it does to navigate an easy chair in comfortable surroundings.

Firemen are for the purpose of putting out fires and thus reducing heat. Instead of living up to this reputation the Nevada City Firemen are going to show us the hottest time of all time at their ball on December 30th.

The stores are saying that there are only 23 more days for shopping. Well that does not effect me so much. I have it figured out that in ten minutes all of my money will be gone.

F. L. Kendall, field manager for the Ainsworth Consolidated Mining Company, and wife arrived in Nevada City last week end and are looking for a house to rent as he wants to reside in Nevada City.

PROPHESY OF POET FOR THIS CITY REALIZED

Poets have the prophetic gift. Witness a little book of verses published some five years since by Nettemay Greenwood Gildersleeve, entitled "The City of Gold" and other poems. The poem which gives title to the little volume concludes with this forecast:

"Some day they'll return to court you
"Hungry for your gold, * * *
"Then once more you will be famous
"As is days of old."

That day is apparently here, for with gold selling above $34 an ounce, and apparently headed for another climb, "The City of Gold" is become the mecca for all those interested in mining. Mrs. Gildersleeve's poem follows in full:

THE CITY OF GOLD

(Ode to Nevada City)

Fairest daughter of the mountains,
Laden with your gold,
How men fought to win your favor
In the days of old.

With great fortunes you endowed them
From your wealth of gold,
Many too you disappointed
In the days of old.

Many came from other nations,
led by stories told;
Fighting for the gold you offered
In the days of old.

Then one day they were forbidden
Further search of gold,
So they packed and left you lonely
In the days of old.
But you sit serenely smiling,
Holding still your gold;
And there's more than men e'er dreamed of
In the days of old.

Some have lingered ever faithful,
Caring not for gold,
But to strangers you are calling
As in the days of old.

Some day they'll return to court you.
Hungry for your gold,
And will battle for your fortune
As in the days of old.

When again your coffers open
Belching forth their gold,
Then once more you will be famous
As in the days of old.

NINETEEN EMPLOYED ON PIKE CITY HIGHWAY

CAMPTONVILLE, Dec. 2.—As part of the President's program for the unemployed situation, 19 men were given work Friday morning on the Camptonville-Pike City road. These men were designated for the work through the local office of the National Reemployment Service, with Acton M. Cleveland in charge. Men are also placed in the N I R A Camp at Freemans Crossing through this agency, likewise other local employment in mines, etc., To this date, 77 men have registered and 34 of these have been placed, and it is expected within a short time to have work for the majority of the remaining applicants. Registration in this service is restricted to Yuba county residents only.

The Pike road is one of the old county roads over a preciptous rugged canyon, very narrow, with no passing turnouts, etc., and no work having been done on it at all of late years due to lack of funds in the county program. It is a mail road, a daily mail service being conducted from here to Pike City. Fred C. Kendall is foreman of this road project, and Norman A. Brown is Superintendent of the Freeman Camp.

SPEED USES GAS AND OIL

Gas and oil should be checked often if the car is driven fast for any great length of time, according to the Free Emergency Road Service of the California State Automobile Association. Fast driving causes a great deal more fuel consumption, and it is a good idea to check up the oil on long hard drives.
